

Momentum is building for 2016 Sydney Bus Show

1 February 2016

Executive Director of BusNSW, Darryl Mellish said he is expecting keen exhibitor interest for the 2016 Australian Bus and Coach Show which is returning to Sydney after 3 years.

The show is to be held on Wednesday 5th and Thursday 6th October, 2016 at The Dome and Halls at Sydney Showground, Sydney Olympic Park.

Preparations are well underway and BusNSW has commenced discussions with its Partners and other industry suppliers wishing to exhibit at the 2016 Australian Bus and Coach Show.

“The 2013 event in Sydney was hailed by many suppliers and attendees as a world class exhibition and the best ever undertaken in Australia,” Mellish said

“In 2016 we are hoping to build on that success with an increased number of national and international displays covering more than 15,000 square metres, all under the one roof.” he said

“We will again have free entry with complete focus on the exhibition to optimise attendance by key decision makers representing bus and coach operators, large and small,” Mellish said.

“With over two thousand attendees in 2013 and three years between shows in Sydney, the 2016 show provides an exceptional opportunity for industry suppliers.”

The event is being held at a time when public transport is a high priority for State and Federal Governments.

An industry Gala Dinner will be held in conjunction with the show on Wednesday 5th October, 2016 to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of BusNSW.

“This is a significant milestone for our past and present Members and the dinner provides an opportunity to acknowledge the Association’s achievements over 75 years,” Mellish said

“We are working on a number of ideas to recognise and capture the industry history for the future, which has enormous community and family focus.” he said
